In signing this application, I hereby agree to:

- uphold East Manchester Community Boat Project's (EMCBP) Constitution
- give your permission for EMCBP to store your name and address in accordance with the Data Protection Acts 1998 and 2003
- abide by EMCBP's health and safety rules and regulations
- follow the directives laid down by EMCBP's policy documents
- abide by any directives set by EMCBP's trustee committee
- submit to 2 reference checks (one of whom may be a current member of EMCBP but must not be a family member)
- attend an informal interview with trustees
- await the outcome and approval from EMCBP trustees before working with passenger groups.

Please provide the name, postal address or email address and occupation of two references (not family) who would be willing to provide a reference as to your suitability to become a volunteer with EMCBP. A reference request will ask for an opinion as to your suitability to work with children and vulnerable adults and ask the reference provider to confirm (to the best of their knowledge) whether or not you have any criminal convictions.

N.B. Please note – the reference request will be emailed to the referee, unless you request otherwise.
